

SAO51C TETRA LEANING LADDER & FLAT ROOF CANDIDATE ACCREDITATION

Introduction

Learners will gain an understanding of the hazards and potential risks of leaning ladders and flat roof access, whilst developing the required knowledge to implement safe working methods via the use of fall protection equipment, that will enable these systems to be used safely.

Purpose

Prepare for further learning or training and/or develop knowledge and/or skills in a subject area

Accreditation

Industry accreditation – Customised qualification.

Learning Outcomes

- Know relevant health & safety legislation and industry good practice when working on site
- Know the importance of the harness within the fall protection system.
- Know fall classification & effect.
- Know the requirements of a personal fall protection system.
- Know leaning ladder access methods.
- Be able to carry out safe working procedure for leaning ladders access methods.
- Know the criteria and inspection guidance for flat roof working.
- Be able to carry out a safe method of installing a single point fall protective system to a flat roof.

Pre- requisite

This qualification is available to anyone over the age of 16 who is capable of reaching the required standard. There are no barriers that restrict access or progression thereby promoting equal opportunity. It is expected however that learners will have a level of literacy adequate to cope with the assessment.

Grading

Pass